An ideology is a collection of normative beliefs and values that an individual or group holds for other than purely epistemic reasons.. The term, and the system of ideas associated with it, was coined by Antoine Destutt de Tracy in 1796, and in contemporary philosophy is now narrower in scope than the original concept, or the ideas expressed in concepts such as worldview, imaginary and ontology.

Reality is all of physical existence, as opposed to that which is merely imaginary. It is the name for all of physical existence, but the word is also used in a declension to speak of parts of reality that include the cognitive idea of an individual "reality" (i.e. psychology), to a "situational reality," or a "fictional reality.". The term is also used to refer to the ontological status of ...
