Joey and I both loved the book "Same Kind Of Different As Me" that came out ten years or so ago. It's a beautiful story about two men that are completely different on the outside, and yet down deep, they're much the same. And that's sort-of how I see the new website and social media changes. The same as before, but kind of different too.

A superficial difference in kind is, as a manifest or observable difference, no less a real difference in kind than a radical difference in kind. If one does not go below the observable differences to explain them in terms of the factors from which they arise, all real differences in kind are alike.
